Hi Clay and Kayla,

It was good to meet a few weeks ago. I thought I would see if there are a revised map and Attachment A that could be forwarded on to me to review, prior to a September meeting. As we discussed, we plan to meet to again to discuss bond calculations, etc, in preparation for posting the bond by approximately the end of the year. I know there ended up being more changes to the map prior to Jane's returning to school than anticipated, so if that slowed things up, I understand.

September is pretty open to me after the first week at this point. Mondays aren't usually the best, but I can be workable. Let me know when would be good for you.

Once I get the map and Attachment A from the NOI, I will review them and my reclamation cost calculation comments, and send any comments back to you.

Let me know if there are questions.

Peter
